

ANNOTATION

on the investment project «Organization of extralight and light multi-purpose planes for airplane chemical works and other civil application manufacture with use of modern composite materials on FEZ Gomel-Raton territory»

The investment project «Organization of extralight and light multi-purpose planes for airplane chemical works and other civil application manufacture with use of modern composite materials on FEZ Gomel-Raton territory is developed by the administration of FEZ Gomel-Raton to show the possibility of realization of the declared project on FEZ Gomel-Raton territory.

A collective investment fund is declared at USD2,1 million.

The investment project is directed on creation of new manufacture which will produce production to be exported and to substitute import - single-motor multi-purpose easily assembled planes which will be based out of aerodrome with the engines working on automobile gasoline, on the basis of prototype F-32 developed by the Samara State Space University.

Release of extralight planes for agriculture application in and other areas of a national economy will be a main goal of activity of the enterprise. Production deliveries are focused both on internal, and on a foreign market.

The general investment expenses under the project make USD4,7 million, including investments into a fixed capital - USD 2,2 million.

Financing of the investment project will be done by the contribution of participants of the project in collective investment fund of the enterprise in the sum of USD 2,1 million, and own means of the enterprise - USD1,3 million, receptions on a gratuitous basis of means from innovative fund of Belarus - USD 1,3 million.

Project realization is planned from 2008 to 2017.

The project time of recovery of outlay makes 6 years and 10 months.

Project realization on FEZ Gomel-Raton territory - the status of a resident of a free economic zone will allow the enterprise to create 107 new workplaces during project realization, to receive a gain from production realization in the sum of USD 36,9 million, net profit - USD 13,2 million. Tax revenues in the budget and off-budget funds will make USD 4,0 million.

The investment project «Organization of extralight and light multi-purpose planes for airplane chemical works and other civil application manufacture with use of modern composite materials on FEZ Gomel-Raton territory» corresponds to the basic criteria of projects selection of FEZ "Gomel-Raton".